

FALL WORKSHOPS

Building Cultural Competence to Enhance your Clinical Practice and
Ethical Issues in Clinical Practice: A Case Study Approach

Workshop 1: Building Cultural Competence to Enhance your Clinical Practice

Time: 9 AM-Noon

Presenters: Monique Jiménez, Psy.D. Associate Chair, Department of Psychology, Adler University and Isha D. Williams, M.S. L.M.F.T., Clinical Director, Couple and Family Therapy Department, Adler University

Goals:

- 1) Understand diversity based on current theory and research
- 2) Understand oppression and discrimination
- 3) Understand privilege
- 4) Develop cultural competence as it relates to the delivery of mental health services

Workshop 2: Ethical Issues in Clinical Practice: A Case Study Approach

Time: 1PM-4PM

Presenters: Kristin Velazquez Kenefick, Psy.D. Associate Professor, The Chicago School of Professional Psychology and Kate Mahoney, L.C.S.W. Executive Director, PEER Services

Goals:

- 1) Learn an ethical decision-making model
- 2) Apply the decision-making model to difficult clinical case scenarios
- 3) Develop an awareness of strategies to resolve ethical conflicts in clinical practice
- 4) Understand the distinction between ethical, legal and social responsibility

3 Continuing Education Credits Per Workshop for

Psychologists, Social Workers, Licensed Professional Counselors, and Marriage/Family Therapists provided by Adler University

Early Registration: $35 for one workshop; $50 for both Registration at the door: $45 for one workshop; $60 for both

Includes breakfast, lunch on your own. Doors open at 8 AM.

You can choose to attend one or both workshops!

To reserve your space: send a check payable to MHANS, 2120 Lincoln, Evanston, IL 60201 with your name, license #, address, e-mail address and phone #. *If registering for only one workshop, indicate workshop 1 or 2. Make checks payable to MHANS. Questions? E-mail us at mhanorthshore@gmail.com.